AMERICAN LEAGUE. Ford Pitches Strong Game and the Highlanders Win. Ford pitched a strong game for Highlanders yesterday and they won from the Red Sox in spite of poor fielding. They went back to second place. This race too is very much strung out. The Detroits, who lose at rare intervals, took another game from the Clevelands, and the tailend Browns became more so by losing to the White Sox. The Athletics defeated the Washingtons for the third straight time and jumped from seventh to fifth place. The results: New York, 4: Hoston, 3. Philadelphia, 9: Washington, G. Brown for Boston was so wild in the first inning that he passed four men. A double by Snodgrass and triple by Devlin fetched in a stream of pedestrians and the inning was good for five runs.

Marquard, thinking imitation the sincerest form of flatiery, gave two bases on balls in the second inning. As Tenney and Graham made hits and Devlin made a bad throw the Bostons picked up three runs. Tenney fried to come in on Devlin's wild throw, but Merkle threw him out at the plate.

The Giants scored once in the third on throw, but Merkle threw him out at the plate.

The Giants scored once in the third on Murray's hit and steal, Graham's wild throw and Pridwell's fly. They scored once in the fourth on Meyers's hit and steal, Doyle's single and a palpable error by Butler, who allowed Snodgrass's drive to go straight through his hands and legs. He should have eaten it up.

The only run off the steady going Grandall was Tenney's trip in the fifth, a single by Tenney, a short throw by Bridwell and a safe splash by Goode being the ingredients. Coster dropped to the floor and Inst round when Coster was hit low with a left hook. Coster dropped to the floor and was carried to his corner by his seconds. Dr. M. T. Cummiskey, the club doctor, was called into the ring and after examining Coster said he was badiy hurt and advised him not to continue the fight. He was carried to his dressing room and the bout was declared off.

Another doctor who was one of the spectators examined Coster. He found that Coster wasn't injured badly and in his opinion Coster could continue the fight opinion Coster could continue the fight of he wanted to. The manager announced that they would put on Jack Smith and Young Terry as substitutes, but the crowd hissed and demanded rain checks, which were given out.

Brooklyn. The bouts went on as usual tremely fast game on the attack and putting up a stiff defence the midshipmen proved twelve of Mount Washington by 3 to 0. All of the scoring was done in the first period, when the speed of the midshipmen proved too much for the more experienced men. In the second half the playing was spirited and sometimes rough and both teams were penalized.

At the end of the third period despite Palmes's scoring and the challengers' team tactics the Greens through Wilson and Agassiz had scored two goals. Wilson was an earnest factor against his chums, getting three goals in all but the Restoning Corne three goals in all, but the Bostonians, Crane and Agassiz were the real strength of the Greens. Agassiz had three, Thomas one and Crane five goals of the twelve scored Lakewood has before revealed. The only penalty in the two games was
